PROJECTS

Click with Caution: ML against Phishing Threats

Phishing URL Detection Using Machine Learning

- Built an end-to-end phishing URL detection system using a labelled dataset of 233K+ URLs from Kaggle.
- Engineered features from URL structure and domain properties, applied SMOTE for class balancing, and used PCA to reduce dimensionality.
- Trained and evaluated SVM, Logistic Regression, and Random Forest models, achieving 99.94% test accuracy with SVM.
- Designed a highly generalizable model suitable for integration into real-time phishing protection systems.

Brain Operated Wheelchair

Diploma Major Project

- Designed a hands-free automation system to control external devices using EEG brainwave signals.
- Collected custom data and analysed EEG patterns, then trained a Machine Learning model to classify mental states for triggering commands.
- Integrated the system with external hardware (wheelchair model) to demonstrate real-time brainwave-controlled movement.
- Showcased the feasibility of neurotechnology driven IoT solutions for assistive applications.
